

RELAXING RETREAT

Two local designers put their spin on a master bedroom design. By Courtney Crane Dauer

WHO:

Angela Wilson Lee

WHERE:

Owner Wilson Lee Interiors

DESIGN PHILOSOPHY:

"Having a sincere interest and appreciation for who my clients are is the foundation for every design project."

"VANALAN" CHANDELIER DESIGNED by Carolyn Kinder for Uttermost, $433

CEILING COLOR "GUNMETAL" (1602) by Benjamin Moore

"WILSON" MIRRORS by Made Goods, $1,521

"FEATHER BLOOM" WALLPAPER IN "DOVE" by Schumacher, $152 per roll

"WILLOWS" PAINTING from The Natural Light, $1,538

"CAMERON" LAMP by The Natural Light, $482

"SANS SERIF" DRESSER and "ENCASE" NIGHTSTAND FROM THE 7H COLLECTION by Hooker Furniture, $1,698 and $1,199

QUICK TIP: "When deciding to renew a space, ask yourself, 'Does my environment inspire and uplift me? Is it a retreat from the influences of the world?'"

"QUADRATE" CARPET by Masland, $174 per yard

"MARVEL TANGERINE" BEDDING by Thom Filicia, $2,224, and "CORRADO" BED IN "JACKSON HEATHER" VELVET, both by Eastern Accents, $2,860