

Most of us wear a mask when we talk about race – we don't want to offend, we do want to be polite. But masks are made to be donned and removed; if we reveal our true selves, we'll begin to heal our community.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Decorate inspired by the question, "What's under your mask?"
2. Cut out along thick lines.
3. Share an image of your completed mask in use online. Be sure to include the #unmaskingRVA hashtag.

What's under your mask?
Be honest.
Be creative.
Be brave.

#unmaskingRVA

SPONSORED BY:

Richmond
magazine

ANOTHER
LIMITED REBELLION

 UptownColor
DIGITAL COLOR PRINTING